

Get ready to level up your credit game.

ScoreCasterIQ®

ScoreCasterIQ provides a detailed analysis of your credit report, recommended actions to take with accounts negatively impacting your score, and interactive tools to help educate and assist you with general credit score scenarios.

Scenario

How do I increase my credit score by 20 points?

Recommendation

Pay down your Discover credit card by $1,000.

Credit Report

The ScoreCasterIQ Credit Report provides customized analysis to help you identify which accounts are affecting your score. You'll receive highlights on each account that requires a review for accuracy, along with links to specific recommendations.

Simulations

Identify a way to help positively manage your score in the short term using two methods, "Target Score" or "Best Use of Funds." Target Score simulations provide specific recommendations to reach your credit score goal. "Best Use of Funds" simulations guide you in considering options that help you meet your target score using your available funds.

Recommendations

Get a summary of recommended actions based on your current credit report. This summary includes short-term actions, such as debt reduction, and long-term actions, such as opening accounts to enhance your credit type balance.
